Commissioner Lucki:

Chief Pam Mizuno and I had an opportunity to discuss the attached correspondence. Currently, Windsor Police does not require the deployment of additional police officers from the OPP or the RCMP.

Chief Mizuno's team is examining what resources they will require and when they will require them. Once the need for any additional resources has been identified, Windsor Police will forward the OPP a request for assistance, and the OPP will assist with providing and/or coordinating the available resources to support the operations of Windsor Police.

Your truly,
Tom
